Acknowledgment of Confidentiality

CC Docket Nos. 96-149, 98-141

I hereby acknowledge that I have received and read a copy of the foregoing Protective Order in the above-captioned proceeding, and I understand it. I agree that I am bound by the Protective Order and that I shall not disclose or use Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information except as allowed by the Protective Order. I acknowledge that a violation of the Protective Order is a violation of an order of the Federal Communications Commission.

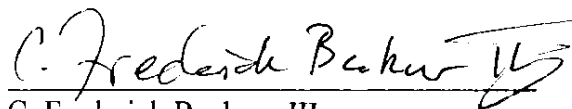

Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent that I have any employment, affiliation or role with any person or entity other than a conventional private law firm (such as, but not limited to, a lobbying or public interest organization), I acknowledge specifically that my access to any information obtained as a result of the order is due solely to my capacity as Counsel or consultant to a party or other person described in paragraph 5 of the foregoing Protective Order and that I will not use such information in any other capacity nor will I disclose such information except as specifically provided in the Protective Order.

I hereby certify that I am not involved in "competitive decision-making" as that term is used in the definition of In-House Counsel in paragraph 2 of the Protective Order.

I acknowledge that it is my obligation to ensure that: (1) Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information are used only as provided in the Protective Order; and (2) Stamped Confidential Documents are not duplicated except as specifically permitted by the terms of paragraph 10 of the Protective Order, and I certify that I have verified that there are in place procedures, at my firm or office, to prevent unauthorized disclosure of Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information.

Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Protective Order.

Executed at Washington, DC this 1st day of July, 2003.

RE: AT&T Wireless Services, Inc.

In the Matter of Revision of the Commission's Rules to Ensure Compatibility With Enhanced 911 Emergency Calling Systems

CC Docket No. 94-102

Dear Ms. Dortch:

As required by its GSM Consent Decree, AT&T Wireless Services, Inc. ("AWS") is submitting this letter to advise the Commission that it has completed validation testing of the network-based location technology provided by the Grayson Wireless division of Allen Telecom, Inc. ("Grayson"), which AWS is employing in its GSM network.¹ AWS and Grayson conducted tests in two first office applications ("FOAs") on AWS' Nokia and Ericsson infrastructures, and those tests demonstrate that the location technology complies with the Commission's Phase II accuracy requirements.

This letter also updates the Commission regarding progress AWS has made since its June 5, 2003 Interim Report² in connection with the June 30, 2003 benchmarks set forth in paragraph 9(a)(3) of the GSM Consent Decree. As AWS explained in its June 5 filing, software defects in certain equipment provided by Grayson required AWS to extend the FOA testing of the solution. AWS was concerned that, although the software problems appeared to be resolved, the short time remaining before June 30 could compromise AWS' ability to accomplish full Phase II integration at 2,000 cell sites by that date. As a result of the remarkable efforts of AWS' E911 deployment team in the last few weeks of June, however, AWS satisfied the GSM Consent Decree's June 30, 2003 benchmarks.

² Revision of the Commission's Rules to Ensure Compatibility with Enhanced 911 Emergency Calling Systems, CC Docket No. 94-102, AT&T Wireless Services, Inc. Interim Report (filed June 5, 2003).

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Douglas I. Brandon
